Mission:

The South African Business Schools Association (SABSA) assists in creating an effective means of leveraging information, skills and expertise between business schools and assists in developing the business education sector in line with international standards.

It aims to provide a platform for the generation and exchange of innovative ideas as well as the exposure of best local and international practices and experience. This sharing of knowledge is aimed at improving the overall quality of business education on an ongoing basis.

To achieve its objectives the Association plans to:

- Act as a body to promote the collective interests of its members
- Promote interest in and knowledge of business and management
- Promote co-operation with other reputable and recognised institutions
- Create a forum for the discussion of relevant education legislation
- Assist in the development of teaching methodology
- Organise academic conferences
- Assist the development of those business schools in earlier stages of development
- Improve on the system of assessment of the quality of business education in South Africa

Management:

SABSA holds two members meetings biannually. A management committee consisting of a president and two vice presidents administer the affairs of the Association and represent the Association publicly.

Membership:

A School may apply for ordinary membership if it is accredited to offer the Masters of Business (MBA) degree or the equivalent. A School may apply for associate membership if it has conditional accreditation to offer the MBA degree or the equivalent or is in the process of applying for such Accreditation.
